Still negotiating K-Mart complex

Gershenson: Don't count site out

by GLORIA DAVIS

According to Dennis Gershenson, developer of the K-Mart shopping complex in the works for the village of Antioch for almost a year, negotiations on the complex are proceeding slowly. Gershenson then added information that indicated that the plans to locate the complex on the north end of Antioch are not completely dead as many have believed.

Gershenson said, "The market conditions have gone from bad to worse, but we are continuing to work on getting a supermarket to locate in the complex."

In elaborating on his statement that "we can't go with K-Mart alone," Gershenson said that the negotiations to bring the entire complex to the 14 acre site north of Antioch are still in progress. The site is located north of the intersection of Rte. 83 and North Ave., on the east side of Rte. 83.

"We've put a tremendous amount of energy into bringing the complex to the north-end and we're still working on it," Gershenson added.

He said that there were other supermarket chains being negotiated with besides Jewel-Osco.

Jewel, supposedly interested in relocating their store in downtown Antioch, had reportedly refused to locate on the north end of the village because they doubted that a sufficient number of customers from Wisconsin would patronize the complex since they would have to pay a tax on food bought in Illinois. There is no tax on most food items sold in the state of Wisconsin.

Gershenson said that his company's studies did not agree with Jewel's assessment of Wisconsin residents as potential customers, agreeing that Antioch already had a lot of grocery customers and many more would be drawn from the western and eastern shopping areas of Wisconsin by the K-Mart.

The most desirable site on the south end of the village is the acreage located at the intersection of Rtes. 83 and 173. This property is reportedly not available.

The same problems that exist on the north end of town, mainly that of east-west access, exist on all other available suitable properties on the south end of the village, reports the developer.

The developer is still negotiating with other supermarket chains to locate on the north end of Antioch.

"No matter what happens nothing can be started until spring now anyway," Gershenson said.

Museum program still alive

by GLORIA DAVIS

In July there was much media coverage, some meetings and a lot of talk about saving the old Antioch Grade School on Main St. and renovating it into a local historical museum.

Even the Antioch Grade School students joined in, making a float that boasted a believable replica of the building for the Fourth of July parade.

The idea of funding the project through a community effort, first voiced by the former mayor of Antioch, Mike Haley, was taken over by William Brook, State Bank of Antioch, and Jim Fields, Antioch Township supervisor. Both men volunteered to contact all the community organizations about raising the necessary money to bring a local museum to the village.

For six months there seems to have been a moratorium on the museum project but after the first of the year things sound like they will start moving again.

According to Brook, the Antioch Historical Society is planning to have a meeting with Robert Dunne who heads the local historical museum in Libertyville within the next few weeks.

"They've done an excellent job in Libertyville and we think talking to people that have handled a project like the one we are planning will be helpful."

Brook added that representatives of all the community organizations will be invited to the meeting, saying, "we are now working on the money situation which is the most important part."

Good news in The News

Special baby

As befits the Christmas season, a newborn baby is the highlight of the Fales household.

Sherry and David Fales, of Antioch and Lake Villa, have performed a feat that breaks 230 years of what ERA proponents would call a losing streak.

For the first time in seven generations of Fales offspring, a baby girl has bloomed on the family tree. Holly Melinda, weighing in at a healthy eight pounds four ounces, arrived at 1:09 p.m., on Friday, Dec. 12, at McHenry Hospital.

Melinda, the baby's middle name, is the same as that of the last Fales female, born 230 years ago.

Christmas donations

The Antioch Mental Health Assn. Thrift Shop, located on Main St., has become a more popular shopping spot because of today's high prices and the economy. Not only does the customer save money by shopping there, but the money they spend there is put to good use.

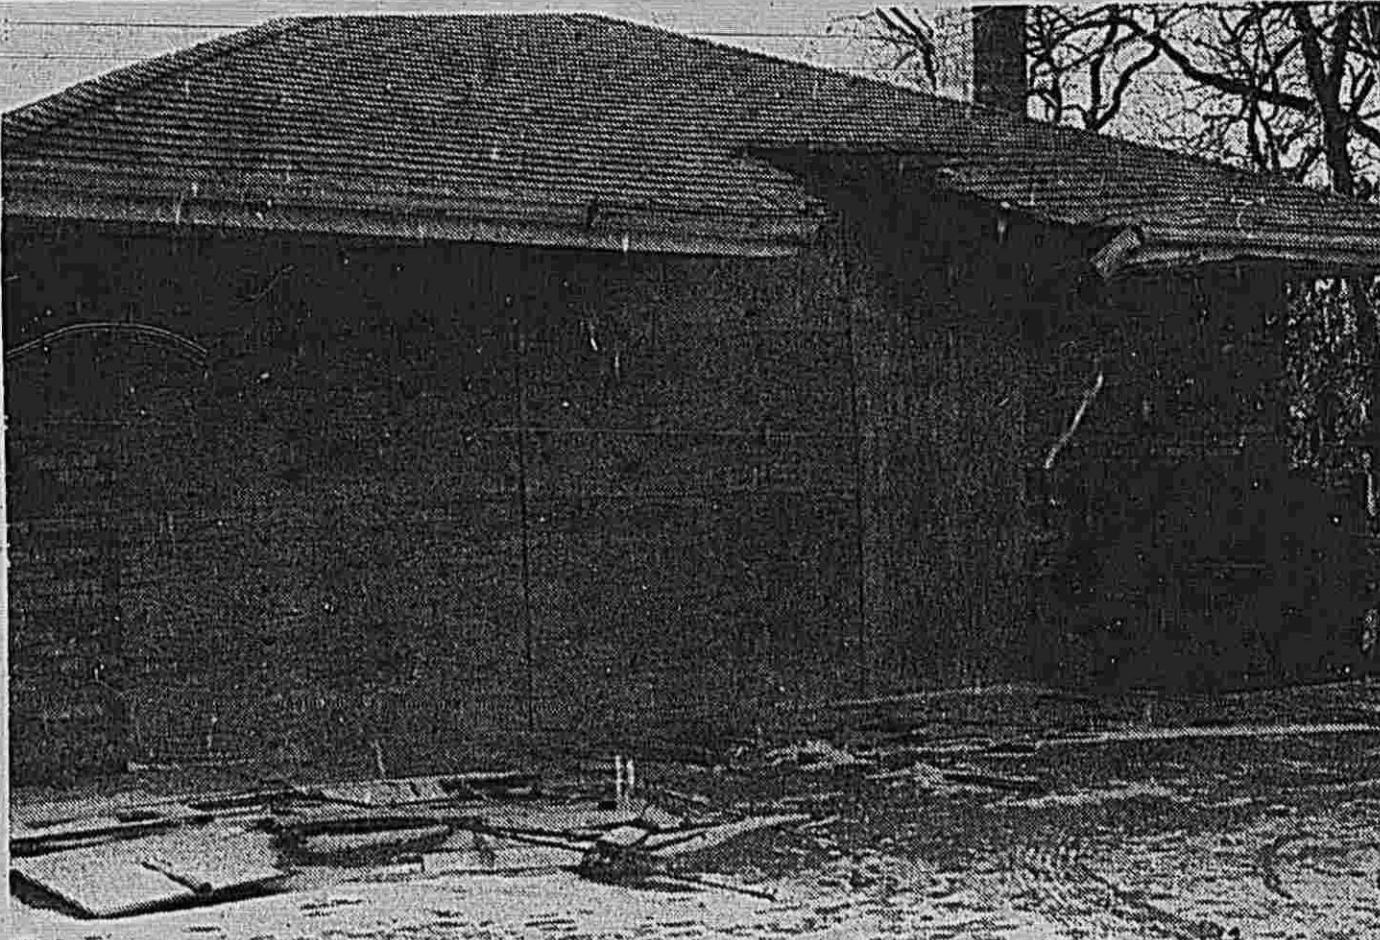

In keeping with the real spirit of Christmas, the Antioch Mental Health Assn. has made yuletide donations of $10,000 to the Grove School For the Retarded; $3,000 to the Riverside Foundation, an intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled adults, Mundelein, and $2,000 to Lambs Farm For Retarded Children in Libertyville.

Airborne auto

18 year old killed as car smashes garage

An 18 year-old Fox Lake man, Michael Christopher Reardon, was killed when the van in which he was a passenger became airborne, after missing a t-intersection stop at Rena Ave. and Rest Haven Terrace., in Antioch-Township and crashed into a garage, at 10:50 p.m., on Wednesday, Dec. 16.

Thomas A. Sbertor, 20, Round Lake, who was the driver of the van, was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad with lacerations and was released on Thursday, Dec. 17.

Reardon was taken to St. Therese Hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad where he was pronounced dead as a result of massive head and chest injuries.

"It sounded like a bomb had gone off," said Toni Burke, daughter of Anthony Lomma, owner of the home and garage that the van crashed into.

Burke saw the devastation caused by the crash when she looked out of a dining-room window that faced her parents garage.

According to Burke the damage is roughly estimated at $20,000. The van not only heavily damaged the brick garage, but landed on top of a Ford Pinto station wagon and also damaged a boat and other contents of the building.

According to Illinois State trooper Jim Barns, further investigation of the accident by the state police is pending.

When I think about it Christmas belongs to all modern Scrooges

by GLORIA DAVIS

Despite all the women's lib movements, any of you that are not convinced that it is still "a man's world," please take a look at the traditional American way of celebrating Christmas.

First of all, who are the two chief figures that lead these festivities, two members of the male gender, the Christ Child and Santa Claus.

In foreign countries Father Christmas and St. Nicholas steal all the limelight, again both members of the masculine sex.

Yet have you ever met a man that likes Christmas? Most of them start acting like their male counterpart, probably the third most famous Yuletide person, Scrooge, right after Thanksgiving and keep up their mumbling about "Spending too much money," "ridiculous commercialism," "I don't want a thing, don't buy me anything," and several other bah humbug-like statements, right up to their office party and Christmas Eve and Day, when suddenly the blue worm turns bright red and green.

I think its totally unfair that Mrs. Santa isn't in the driver's seat throughout the holiday season since its the wives and mothers that drive all over the place, braving the holiday shopping crowds, making sure that there is a sufficient amount of packages under the tree.

She addresses the Christmas cards, even the ones to his office and his side of the family, making sure little notes are included in special ones, and wraps all the presents.

And I don't think many men can be found toiling away over a hot oven, turning out the spritz or the holiday kuchen.

Giving the guys their due, some of them do volunteer to pick out and buy the tree and most of them do pretty well, if you don't mind a bare spot here and there. After all decorating a tree that resembles the Leaning Tower of Pisa can be a challenge!

Tell me, when the tree turns out to be too tall, does your husband chop it off at the top instead of the bottom like mine does? Try and figure out how to put an angel or star on top of that!

Who is that slave in the kitchen that copes with the stress and strain of the Christmas dinner preparations? But again, giving the men the credit due them, they too are under great stress and strain in the den guiding their favorite team towards that ever important touchdown.

But I guess we love'em anyway. It's worth it all to see that grin as he tries out his new casting rod, even if he does get it all tangled up in the Christmas tree.

What would we do without him, he does make a yummy Tom and Jerry and most of all he sure comes in handy when all those bills start sneaking in.

So gals, I guess we might as well continue to let him think that he is boss at Chrsitmas time, why should that be any different than any other time of the year?

Suspicious persons sighted in Antioch... In what has become somewhat of a seasonal disturbance, reports began filtering in just after Thanksgiving that a large overweight man in red flannels, featuring a hippie-type white beard and long hair was again being sighted in the Antioch area. According to police reports the description of the subject varied from time to time. He was either pleasingly plump, obese or thin and had been termed of varying height. The mysterious man had been observed carrying a large bag which one officer described as bulging at the seams and "close to cryin'" from the burden it was holding.

At a special meeting held Tuesday, the ACHS Education Association voted to ratify a contract that includes a moratorium on salary increases for the year 1971-72.

BABY TEETH SHOULD BE FILLED

All dentists have seen children with neglected tooth decay. While it is understandable that parents don't want their children undergoing expensive and uncomfortable dental treatment on teeth which will be lost in a few years, these teeth should be treated, for several reasons.

First, the set of baby (primary) teeth is complete at about age three. The last of these teeth will not be lost, on average, for nine years — plenty of time for small cavities to become toothaches.

Second, the baby teeth help form the shape and size of the growing jaws. Often, a baby tooth lost too early causes the permanent teeth to erupt in the wrong space.

Third, an infected baby tooth can cause damage to the permanent tooth forming underneath.

Finally, unsightly decayed teeth can cause emotional problems in children once they enter school.

Children should have dental care early to prevent serious problems from occurring later.

Dr. Sven will be happy to answer individual questions about dental problems. Address personal inquiries to his office.

Carole's full of Yule-spirit

by CAROLE RISKA

Antioch High School students are filling in as Santas and elves, replying to letters sent to Santa Claus.

This year, since Santa's official mailing address was established at the Antioch Post Office, about 4,000 letters from youngsters around the country have received handwritten replies from Santa that answer each child's special questions and requests for presents.

The high school students are among those assisting Don DeFosse, a 35 year old foreman at an electrical products company in Waukegan. We can put ourselves back in time and imagine what a thrill it is for a child to receive a handwritten reply from Santa himself.

Thanks to the cooperation of the Antioch Post Office, who is handling the mail and the village board who gave Santa his address at Toyland Rd., the childhood fantasy is continued.

Surely all those who are involved in this charming project are feeling Christmas-like, warm-hearted and jolly, with good reason.

Ploss future bright with Badger cagers

John Ploss, Antioch High's gift to the 1981-82 University of Wisconsin basketball team, will have an abbreviated Christmas holiday this year.

The Badgers tuned up at home Monday night, Dec. 21, against Northern Iowa, in preparation for a trip to the west coast for the Far West Classic running Dec. 27-30.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ploss of Deep Lake expected a disruptive holiday this year because of their tall blonde son's basketball commitments.

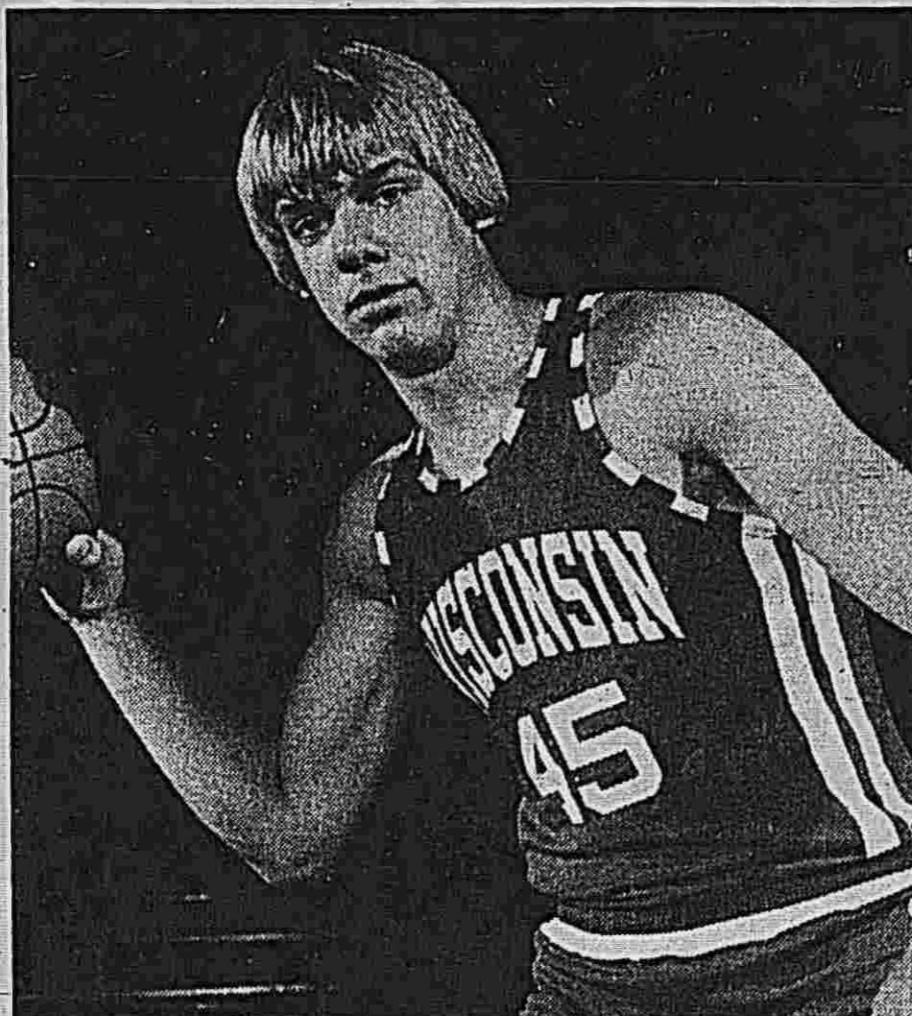

Coach Bill Cofield's squad opens the Big 10 season Thursday, Jan. 7, at Michigan. By then, the talented ex-Sequoit center should feel comfortable in big time college competition.

"John is an excellent addition to our program at the University of Wisconsin. We feel very fortunate to have him. John's basketball future here is very bright," declared Ken Johnson, assistant coach.

Majoring in forestry management, John has been installed in the role of backup center for the Badgers.

Johnson had this to say about Ploss:

"Already his presence has been felt! On Dec. 5 John entered our game with UW-

John Ploss

Green Bay and stopped their 6-9 center from continuing to dominate the contest inside. Over the last 14 minutes John scored three baskets on three attempts, garnered four rebounds, made two free throws in two attempts and held the opponents center to two baskets for the last 14 minutes of the game. Quite a performance for an inexperienced freshman.

"John is very fortunate to have played for a coach who drills fundamentals as Coach Andrews does at Antioch High School. We look for continued improvement from John during the remainder of this season.

"Not only is John a fine player, but also a fine student. It is nice knowing that he'll also be excelling in the classroom, as well as on the "court," Johnson concluded.

Sequoit soph-jv wrestlers top Grayslake

The Antioch Sophomore Junior-Varsity Wrestling Team won another dual meet against Grayslake, extending its record to four wins and two losses.

On Dec. 11, the Sequoits won a tough dual against a good Grayslake squad. With wins by Jim Wais, Keith Neize, Matt McGrain, Ed Silva, John Weldin and Jeff Gibson.

Antioch was winning 30-27 going into the last match at heavyweight. With the pressure on Jamie Olson, Antioch's 230 pound heavyweight had to win. If Grayslake won, the meet would wind up a tie, if he were pinned, Antioch would lose.

Olson, a freshman, was wrestling his first match. He got the takedown in the first period to the screams and cheers of the Antioch fans.

In the second period, he broke his opponent down, slipped in a half nelson and minutes into the second period, pinned the Grayslake wrestler.

The Antioch fans and teammates went wild as the sophomores won 36-27.

In previous meets this season, the junior varsity-sophomore Sequoits have accomplished the following: beaten Downers Grove South, 36-30; beaten Aurora West, 42-27; and beaten Crystal Lake Central, 44-20.

Outstanding efforts have been by Chuck Hamlin, five wins, no losses, three pins; Jim Wais, three wins, no losses; Keith Neize, three wins, no losses, two pins; and Chris DeWitt, three wins, no losses, three pins.

Also, Steve Case, two wins, no losses, two pins; Dean Elrod, one win, two losses, one pin; Jeff Kemper, two wins, one loss; Matt McGrain, two wins, one loss, one pin; Cameron Adkins, three wins, no losses, two pins; Ed Silva, one win, no losses; John Weldin, three wins, no losses, two pins; and Jeff Gibson, two wins, no losses, two pins.

Wrestlers place fifth in tournament

dy. Vinnes placed third.

The team placed fifth overall, missing third place by eight points and second place by 20 points.

The Sequoits will wrestle again Friday, Dec. 18, against Wauconda; and Saturday, Dec. 19 at Gurnee in the Warren Fresh Tournament.

Cagers win 3 going into tourney

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Antioch varsity basketball team will have three wins under their belts when they go to the Rockford Classic Tourney to be played at Rockford Auburn on the weekend between Christmas and New Years.

The Sequoits edged the Wauconda Bulldogs, 50-49, on Friday, Dec. 18, in a game that Coach Roger Andrews called, "not very artistic."

Andrews said that his boys had a hard time concentrating and evidently weren't mentally prepared for the game.

"They thought it would be a cake walk and it ended up to be an up-hill struggle for Antioch all the way," said Andrews.

Wauconda was ahead, 33-24, at half time but Antioch came back in the second half, playing better defense and having fewer turnovers.

Bob Gatti was the Sequoits' leading scorer with 24 points.

"We didn't play the game too intelligently but should give Wauconda credit for making us look that way," reported Andrews.

Missing 19 free throws was credited as Antioch's biggest problem. The Sequoits missed 12 of those in the last quarter, the reason they didn't outscore Wauconda as was expected.

Saturday, Dec. 19, was a different story as the Sequoits took on Lake Forest, soundly beating them, 75-60.

Gatti again lead the Antioch scorers with 24 points. Brad Herbst had 15 points to his credit and Tom Anderson marked down 12 points.

Phil Aschbacher and Chris Becker, who haven't been on the floor much this season, had a creditable showing, according to Andrews.

Lake Forest took a quick lead and, at one time during the first quarter were ahead, 16-6, but by the end of the period Antioch closed the gap, 22-18.

The Sequoits went ahead midway during the second quarter and built on that the remainder of the game.

The Sequoits will face Rockford Boylan in the first game of the Rockford Tournament, at 8:30 p.m., on Saturday, Dec. 26, at Rockford Auburn High School.

If they win that one they will play the winner of the Rockford Auburn-Dixon game at 7 p.m., on Tuesday, Dec. 29. If they lose, they will play the winner of Rockford Auburn-Dixon, at 11 a.m., on Monday, Dec. 28.

The tournament championship game and the third place game will be played Thursday afternoon, Dec. 31, at the Rockford Metro Center.

Racing show plans given

The Fourth Annual Babicz Auto Racing Services (BARS) Racing Show is planned for Wednesday through Friday, March 24-28, at Lakehurst Shopping Center, Rte. 120 (Belvidere Rd.) in Waukegan.

The show, which has grown each year with last year's record setting entry list of over 50 coming from three different states, is expected to be even bigger this year, according to show officials.

"Early entries are already coming in with the interest in the show being greater than ever," a show spokesperson said.

Tabbed "the largest free show in the Midwest," the annual event is expected to feature racing entries ranging from racing boats and go karts to USAC stock cars.

Trophies will be awarded to the best appearing entries in various categories, with participation awards being given to each entry through the courtesy of Toft Auto Racing and BARS.

Persons interested in entering the show or having a display should contact BARS at 1620 Sunset Ave., Apt. 212, Waukegan, 60087 or phone (312) 623-3740.

Show sponsors include: Midwest Racing News, Toft Auto Racing, J&L Oil, WXLC Radio, Larry's Mobil, Furlan's Dug Out, Chuck Jenkins Photography and Ostrowski's Charter Fishing.

DISTRIBUTION UNDERWAY—Heavyweight boxing title contender Renaldo Snipes, Waukegan, who is chairman of this year's Lake County Toys For Tots drive, helps Marine Gunnery Sgt. Phillip Schecki sort toys for distribution to needy children in Lake County. Many toys were distributed last week with remainder to find homes with needy children before Christmas.

Soph grapplers win Hershey High tourney

Antioch's Sophomore Wrestling Team took first place in an eight team tournament at Hersey High School over the past weekend.

With five champions in 12 weight classes, two fourth and two fifth place finishes, Antioch edged out St. Patrick's of Chicago 150 to 145 points to win the tournament.

Other team finishers were Bolingbrook with 112 points; Prospect, 102 points; Niles North, 99 points; Hersey, 94 points; Arlington, 72 points; and Wheaton-Warrenville, 23 points.

Outstanding performances were made by Chuck Hamlin in the 112 pound weight class who won three matches in a row and had two pins including one in the finals; Matt McGrain in the 145 pound weight class who pinned his first two opponents and won a 5-2 decision over Hersey in the finals and Ed Silva in the 155 pound weight class who pinned all three of his challengers in just over three minutes of accumulated wrestling time.

Also John Weldin, 167 pound weight class, who won three matches and had one pin in the finals over a St. Pat's wrestler; and Jeff Gibson at 185 pounds who pinned all three of his opponents in a dazzling display of takedown power.

Other wrestlers whose placing points were indispensable to the team's victory were: Jim Wais, 105 pounds with one loss, two wins, and one pin for fifth place; Don Rasmussen, 98 pounds, fourth place; Mike Papp, 119 pounds, one pin for sixth place; Rich Carl, 126 pounds, sixth place; Tom Merkel, 132 pounds, two wins

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Dr. R. A. Sona,
OPTOMETRIST

SQUINTING

People who squint a lot probably need glasses. This is often a sign of nearsightedness. Nearsighted people who don't have glasses will squint to sharpen their focus when looking at something. It may solve the problem temporarily, but it can also cause eyestrain and headaches. And squinting doesn't do much for your personal appearance.

Some adolescents tend to squint when they're growing up. By the time they are 20 or 21 many of them realize that their nearsightedness is a problem that needs help. In some cases the near-sightedness will improve by then. Sometimes it gets progressively worse. But for most people, the degree of nearsightedness has reached a plateau by the time they're fully grown.

The problem may be in one or both eyes. Only an eye examination can determine that. But with the proper glasses, "squinters" will have normal vision and will no longer have to strain their eyes to see clearly.

SURCHARGE

Governor James R. Thompson has signed legislation that imposes a surcharge on traffic and criminal fines to pay for the training of police at the local level. "This bill will support the operations of the Local Government Law Enforcement Officers Training Board and will place the burden of training those local officers where it properly belongs, on those who break the law," Thompson said.

TO SLEEP IS HUMAN. TO SLEEP DURING THE DAY IS DIVINE.

If you were in our shoes, you'd think so too.

Because the way things are now, when nearly everybody's up during the day, it's not so divine. The cost of producing electricity goes up.

You see, the eight million people we serve use an enormous amount of electricity before they go to bed. And our main generating stations, the ones that run on coal and uranium, have an impossible time handling the demand. It takes our oil burners to pull us through.

But oil is far more expensive than coal and uranium. So during the day, electricity costs far more to make. Up to four and a half times more than at night.

Of course, if half of us would volunteer to start sleeping during the day, it would hold down the demand. Which would also hold down the amount of oil we have to burn, the number of new generating stations we have to build, and the size of the electric bills you have to pay every month.

Since that's asking an awful lot, though, you'll be relieved to know there are other ways to get the job done. Nothing earthshaking. Just conserving a little more in the daytime.

Like not using your air conditioner so much on those scorching summer days. Or not running the dishwasher till 9 or 10 p.m. Or the clothes dryer. Or other easy things like that.

When enough people go along, they really can make a difference.

All we have to do is do it together. That's the key. To keeping costs down. To getting some control over tomorrow.

If we only wake up.

Don't take tomorrow for granted.

ASL helps solve mortgage problems

Inflation, high interest rates and increasing unemployment has led to record numbers of delinquent mortgages in Illinois. In fact, The Mortgage Bankers Association of America reported that Illinois leads the nation in the number of delinquent mortgages, nearly twice the national average.

Antioch Savings and Loan has recognized that current economic conditions, particularly unemployment, has hit the Chicago area hard, which explains why the delinquency rate is higher than most of the state.

Consequently, the association is working with those mortgage customers, who are having difficulty in making their monthly mortgage payment.

James Swiatek, president of Antioch Savings, stated that the association has contacted their mortgage customers by letter, to express the association's willingness to assist anyone who has fallen victim to the economy.

"We currently have plans available to any customer who feels that they are going to have difficulty in making their payments. Each plan is designed to prevent the loan from becoming delinquent," he said.

"We want the customer to contact us, if they anticipate trouble in making their payments. Once the loan becomes delinquent, federal regulations don't permit us much latitude in assisting the customer," he added.

With pending foreclosures at record levels in Illinois, Swiatek commented that foreclosure is only a last resort for both the association and the homeowner.

"We are not in the real estate business. We will do everything in our power to help the customer keep the roof over their head," he said.

In spite of the association's concern for mortgage delinquencies, Antioch Savings has also initiated a mortgage discount program, for those customers interested in paying off their mortgage ahead of schedule.

The program consists of four accelerated payment plans. Depending on the plan, the customer agrees to increase their monthly principal and interest payment by a certain percentage, which in turn will reduce their mortgage interest rates.

Bill Russell, vice president, commented that mortgage customers have been very receptive to this program. We have compiled a detailed schedule on how loan discounting can save our customers thousands of dollars in interest payments over the years.

Sharing and caring is the name of the game. On Friday, Dec. 11, the volunteers of the Antioch office of the Chain O'Lakes Senior Services did just that by holding their annual Christmas party and inviting as their guests needy and, or, lonely seniors they help throughout the year.

Ninety percent of the volunteers are seniors themselves and tender loving care for their peers is expressed by this true spirit of giving to others.

All the volunteers cooked, baked and prepared the food. They also provided the transportation in their cars as the mini-bus couldn't handle all the people who were attending.

They also helped many seniors who otherwise could not get out to the party, like those who are on the Telecare Service and Friendship visits.

Over 130 people were entertained by the Madrigal singers from Antioch High School.

The singers are: Jenny Hope, Joe Mills, Kelli Schaefer, Kim Salgado, Judy Bellucci, Linda Bolt, Kelly Gordod, Julie Meader, Chris Gogdon, Robert Dunlap, Victor Bajaliske, Henry Apostol, Chris Kushner, Kris Zeien, Andrew Bird and Tom Krausser.

Also, all during the day, the endearing senior band, "The Happy Wanderers," including Al Courtis, Emily Novotka and Virginia played.

The party was held at the local Moose Hall on Main St. and Santa was there with gifts for all. The gifts, food, money and flowers were donated by many area merchants and businesses.

Country House has spacious addition

In 1841 the Simmons family from New York state purchased 140 acres of land less than one half mile west of what is now the junction of Rtes. 59 and 183. The family finished the construction of a seven room house on the land's highest hill in 1849, using homemade bricks (dried in the sun) and which can still be seen in a wall of the restaurant.

Starting with when the farmhouse was converted into a restaurant and lounge in 1950, by Bernard Haviland, many changes were made. For example, the large dining room in the house became a barroom and walls were removed in order to create a large public dining area.

The restaurant and lounge was originally named the Smart Country House. Later, after extensive remodeling it was known as Lorenz's Country House, then when Bob Koester purchased the restaurant and Lounge in 1977 the name became simply The Country House.

The Country House has become a tradition in the northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin area, and now, because of its growing reputation for excellent dining and first-rate entertainment, it has just been expanded in size.

The just completed addition, with a balcony, 45 foot long wood and mirrored bar, and illuminated by six brass chandeliers and large windows, highlights a 12 by 25 foot band stand and 30 by 30 foot (irregularly shaped) parquet dance floor.

The panelled walls and ceiling of aged Ponderosa pine, brown carpeting, and subdued warm lighting create a friendly, relaxed and casual atmosphere that might be called an elegant "country house."

The added space, which extends from the original construction, was completed in October and now allows 250 persons to be seated on the 76 by 55 foot entry level floor and 75 people on the balcony, while the original restaurant accommodates 70 diners, the old Tiffany room 35, and the adjacent "old" lounge and bar have a capacity of 100 people.

Koester, the son of Lil and Wally Koester, who are also active in the business, spends most of his time supervising the staff of approximately 50 employees in order to assure the finest possible meals and service. Working closely with families or groups in planning menus, arranging for entertainment and any special needs for the functions.

The Country House caters to both young and old alike. And is open from 11 a.m. until 2 a.m., with dinner served to 10 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and from 11 a.m. to 3 a.m. Friday, Saturday and holiday evenings, with dinner served until midnight, and from noon until 2 a.m. Sunday with dinner served until 10 p.m.

Cramer's art to be on Channel 11

The artwork of local children will be seen on WTTW/Channel 11 during one minute station breaks from Dec. 14 thru Dec. 18 and Dec. 21 thru Dec. 25 at: 10 a.m., 5 p.m., 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The artwork depicts holiday festivities or winter landscapes, and represents schools from throughout Channel 11's viewing area.

The Friends of Channel 11, which is the volunteer support group for Chicago public television, sponsored the Children's Art Festival.

Participating schools submitted the work of fourth through sixth graders to the station. WTTW staff made the final selections based on which pieces could best be reproduced on a 35mm slide.

The art work of Melissa Cramer, Grass Lake School sixth grader will be shown. Cynthia Vandrush, is the art teacher at Grass Lake

The art work which was selected for broadcast will be televised during station breaks on Channel 11 at the following times: Monday through Friday, Dec. 14 through Dec. 18, and Dec. 21 through Dec. 25, 10 a.m. right after Sesame Street; 5 p.m., right after Mister Roger's Neighborhood, 6 p.m., right after Sesame Street and at 8 p.m.

St. Peter plays in series

On Dec. 13, St. Peter, Antioch, faced St. Thomas, Crystal Lake, in a three game series featuring the sixth, seventh and eighth grade teams from both schools.

St. Peter's eighth grade won by a score of 36-29. Eric Riede was the high scorer with 16 points, Bruce Marquesski, 10 points; John Fritz, eight points and Steve Hanson, two points.

Rob Cote, Rusty Richards and Phil Hettich came off the bench and played a good defensive game according to Coach Jim Litchfield.

This win leaves the eighth grade with a four win and three loss record for the season so far.

The seventh grade from St. Peter lost by a score of 45-30. Brad Schueneman and Mark Carpenter were the high scorers with 13 points each. John Shaffer and Greg Werba had two points each.

Even though there was good shooting in the second half, St. Peter's rebounding was poor and that cost them the game according to Coach Terry McDermott.

Coach McDermott is also pleased with Schueneman's shooting ability and has high hopes for the future.

The sixth grade from St. Peter also lost by a score of 34-23. David Wick lead the scoring with seven points. Bill Letky had six points, Scott Frasch five points, Dwayne Garwood and Jason Bellucci had two points each, and Greg Fisher had one point.

Coach John Schremser relates that his team played a good defensive game which forced St. Thomas to shoot from the outside, but unfortunately, their outside shots were accurate.
